MCDONALD

In sad, but loving remembrance of our dear son, William Madison McDonald, Jr., who died one year ago to day, February 18, 1918. Smiles may meet our face, Tears may dim our eyes, But no one knows how our heart aches, Since our son died.

Some may think that he's forgotten And the wound has long been healed, But if they only knew the sorrow That is in our heart concealed.

We miss you Dear Son, More than tongues can tell But we know that you are resting In that house where all is well.

We did not know the pain he bore, We did not see him die, We only know he went away, And never said good-bye.

PAPA and MAMMA.
Fort Worth, Texas,
Feb. 18, 1919.

Next Sunday Dr. Jenkins will preach on the Subject "The Anatomy of the Ear," and "The Rainbow Sign." "No more Water but Fire next time." Do not fail to hear the sweet songs of the choir. President Louis Jones covered himself with glory last Sunday, but wait, the phenomenon is to be next Sunday.

Mr. Blain Williams and Miss Minnie Thomas were united in the bonds of Holy matrimony, Rev. S. Jenkins officiating.

The Junior Missionary Society made a happy hit in their Valentine musical. They sang the "Rainbow Sign" and "The Anatomy of the Ear." The presentation of program prayer service was conducted by Rev. Bro. Dickson, after which the Orphan children occupied the choir stand, the savel struck and thus the meeting opened.

The program began promptly at an hour designated by the committee in charge. Two songs were sung and prayer and full of love. The Rev. W. L. Dickson read a portion of scripture and invoked the divine blessing upon the assembly in a firm and fervent manner.

Concluding with the president's prayer, came to the introduction of the very Rev. R. Ray, Dean of the Cathedral, who in a forceful and convincing manner accentuated the wonderful progress the Negro has made over nationalities along educational lines during the same space of time.

Dean Ray's address though brief was inspiring and full of logic. The Rev. H. N. Frank, assistant pastor to Dr. Frank Smith, was the next speaker. He fittingly urged the needs of the Orphanage and its future with interest. He emphasized further his profound sympathies in the cause of a racial uplift.

County Judge Simpson representing the Juvenile Court spoke at length upon the valuable assistance rendered the Juvenile Court by the Dickson-Orphanage, he said is a great help to the commonwealth and humanity.

The Rev. Dickson spoke of the nineteen years of struggle, the institution has undergone (but says the apostle of the orphanage) the dawn of day is now peering in the welcome face from behind the clouds of despair and the school has its two words of the right and is now marching up the road of success.

The total collection at Bethel amounted to $152.72. Evening collection $102.72, night collection with report $50.00 making a total of $315.44.

Rev. Dickson spoke and his children sang a large congregation at First Presbyterian (white) church, Sunday night. The song service by the children was well received and President Dickson received a great ovation by the enthusiastic congregation of his work. Over $200.00 was contributed to the church's devotion for Christianity and Christian work.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock the Rev. Dickson to impress further the work of his institution spoke at the Bryan High School, and his children rendered a unique program which was received with much enthusiasm. The white children were loved in their praise of the Orphan children's work.

Rev. Dickson in reply to an invitation filled the pulpit at the Saint Andrew's Cathedral, Wednesday night, the very Rev. Randolph Ray, Dean.

Thursday evening, Rev. Dickson at the Adolphus Hotel, the largest in the city to a society of young men and women, who were desirous of hearing the children and know of the work of the school. His appeal at the hotel made a strong impression upon the assembly at the big hotel.

To much can not be said of the great achievement made by the Orphanage which is due to the stable efforts and keen business judgment of the affable founder, the Rev. W. L. Dickson, who has espoused the cause of the Orphanage from every pillow and post of the state to the staunch satisfaction of humanity. When truth gets a hearing the name W. L. Dickson shall stand as a monument to the sacred cause of Christianity.

Reviews the Work of the Zion Rest Association.

Dallas, Texas, Feb. 19, 1919.
Editor of the Dallas Express:

In your far-reaching and admirable news paper, you let us see, through your columns again, to let our brotherhood throughout the country know that we, the Zion Rest Association, are on the firing line as never before. Our board met in West Dallas, with the Mt. Gilead Baptist church, Rev. T. H. Henderson, pastor. Let us tell it to the many readers, that is one more big hearted Baptist preacher, with a big hearted crowd of Baptist members and other friends of the church, both saints and sinners. We started on the 11th inst through to the 16th B. Y. P. U., Rev. J. S. Sutton, president; Mrs. A. M. Carter, treasurer.

Now listen, no joke they made things pick up every way. Education had a hearing. Rev. Sutton is a splendid union man as well as a great preacher. On the 12th we had Sunday school with Rev. J. S. A. Trower, president; Miss F. Dubose, secretary; Rev. W. D. Davis, treasurer, stepped on the scene. They had a big day. Education again had a hearing. Dr. Trower has the work on high ground with Dr. J. B. Miller, State S. S. man gave out some choice S. S. information. Our hearts and heads were helped. On the 13th, we found the Association Board around there playing round us no lose.

Education also had a hearing. A few people know the writer is the Moderator and he believes in doing his whole duty.

Rev. F. K. White, the Bible man was there and well on his job. He is the District Institute teacher. Hear me, he put it over the top. Live on Dr. White to instruct the people for we all need it.

Prof. W. H. Fuller, educational financial secretary for the general conventions of Texas was there and spoke on education until our hearts and minds were filled with the idea that we believe that education in about 50 days from now to raise the greater part of the half million dollars for education for our four colored schools. The 14th, found the W. H. M. S. about their business with Mrs. A. E. Ellis, president; Mrs. O. Barnes, secretary; Mrs. A. E. Cooper, treasurer of other women with them they are doing a great work. Those women sang and prayed about education until it seemed that I, the writer can hear them now. And then they paid. New listen, no joke over the top, departments, here we go over the top.

A large amount of money was raised from all departments. Rev. W. P. Perry, the Missionary, sent a letter to the board, stating that he was unable to do the work, therefore, Rev. J. W. Foster of Kaufman, Texas, was elected secretary. Rev. G. W. Durham, assisting same. We were there Revs. J. S. A. Trower, J. S. Sutton, H. W. Guster, S. G. Guster, P. M. Mitchell, J. W. Fowler, G. W. Durham, F. K. White, L. B. Cornelius, M. D. Gilmore, L. D. Davis, B. B. Skinner, W. M. Taylor, Prof. R. B. Alexander, secretary of the association, Bro. Hawkins, Rev. W. M. McPherson, Rev. J. H. Herron, T. H. Henderson, Rev. Palmer and others. Some of the working women who were there: Madams A. E. Ellis, O. Barnes, Mrs. A. E. Emphy, S. Carpenter, L. Haron, F. E. Dubose, E. Johnson, Coins, Bell, Cooper and D. Andrew.

Rev. G. W. Lilly, Mrs. H. Sutton, furnished us with music of our souls' desire. Many others were there. The next board will meet at Rosser with the Mt. Olive Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Lilly, pastor. Tuesday after noon the second Sunday in May, we will on the firing line for the District Educational Campaign. Let every church of this district be heard from in God we all trust. Our fellowmen, we all must help to do our Christian duty. Oh! Lord give us all a mind to do right. Amen.
